

My goal is to work with talented creatives on challenging projects where I can learn and refine my own skills. /

Spayce, Inc.

Cheif Creative Officer

2013 - present

Brilliant crew. Awesome product. Stealth mode. Launching soon. Stay tuned!

Reconiz

Co-founder, CCO

2013 - present

I have the pleasure to work on a new and upcoming hot social media app. Stay tuned for the beta release sometime in 2014!

Evernote

Product Design Intern

March - October

I got to work with amazingly talented people.

Friendect

Lead Designer

2012 - 2013

I am wrapping up an upcoming location based utility mobile app for a bootstrap company. As the sole designer at Friendect, I am constantly challenged. I get to learn and flex my knowledge in all areas of creating the perfect product.

Lab Operations

Supervisory Assistant (SA)

2010-2013

At our exclusive New Media Lab, I assist students and professors in making the best use of lab gear (such as the state-of-art 27" iMacs), train lab assistants, and keep the lab a pristine and welcoming environment for the regular all-nighters.
